General Provisions
[Adopted 1-12-1970 as Ch. 69 of the 1970 Code]

- § 41-1. Composition. [Amended 4-1-1974 by Ord. No. 1072; 4-1978 by Ord. No. 1123; 6-27-1980 by Ord. No. 1143]

The members of the Police Department of the Borough of Berwick may consist of a Police Commissioner, a Chief of Police and Assistant Chief of Police, Sergeant(s) and/or Corporal(s) and such other number of patrolmen not exceeding one per thousand population as the Borough Council may from time to time prescribe.

- § 41-2. Promotions. [Amended 4-1-1974 by Ord. No. 1072; 4-1978 by Ord. No. 1123; 6-27-1980 by Ord. No. 1143]

A. Promotion of any member of the Police Department below the rank of Assistant Chief shall be made by the Borough Council in the following manner:

- (1) Testing of police officers for advancement in rank will be conducted through the Police Civil Service Commission. This test will consist of two parts: oral and written. All applicants must take both parts.
- (2) Point system of promotions.
  - (a) Promotions will be made on a point system based on a maximum of 100 points, graduated in the following manner:
    - [1] A maximum of 40 points for the oral test and a maximum of 40 points for the written test. Example of point system application: 100% test score equals 40 points; 80% test score equals 32 points; 70% test score equals 28 points.
    - [2] The maximum for Commissioner/Chief's and Mayor's rating: 15 points.
    - [3] The maximum for education, police schooling: five points.
  - (b) The above procedures will be detailed in rules and regulations.
- B. The Commissioner shall be appointed by the Borough Council. The Council may dismiss the Commissioner, at its discretion, with two weeks' severance pay.
- C. The Chief of Police and/or Assistant Chief of Police shall be appointed by the Borough Council after Council's nominee for the respective position of appointment shall have been subjected, through the Police Civil Service Commission, to a noncompetitive examination, and the nominee shall have been certified by the Police Civil Service Commission as being qualified for the designated appointment.

§ 41-3. Probationary period.

All appointees as members of the police force, with the exception of the Chief of Police and present full-fledged members of the police force, shall be classified at the time of their respective appointments as "probationary" and shall serve such probationary period as the Borough Council shall prescribe.

§ 41-4. Salary and clothing.

- A. The salary of the members of the Police Department shall be fixed at such annual rates as Council shall establish by appropriate action.<sup>1</sup>
- B. In addition to the salaries herein provided, each member of the Police Department shall be supplied with such clothing and upon such terms and conditions as the Borough Council may designate.

---

§ 41-5. Supervision.

The supervision of the members of the Police Department in the performance of the ordinary duties of their respective offices shall be vested in the Mayor.

§ 41-6. Council members to be ex officio patrolmen.

All members of the Borough Council shall be ex officio patrolmen without salary or uniform allowance.

§ 41-7. Special policemen.

- A. The Borough Council may in its discretion appoint additional policemen who shall be designated as special policemen, who shall have no civil service standing or uniform allowance and who shall be paid such rates of pay as the Council may from time to time designate.
- B. All special policemen will receive 10 hours of instruction within 60 days of their appointment. Instruction will be prescribed by the Commissioner/Chief. [Added 4-1-1974 by Ord. No. 1072]
- C. Special policemen will be appointed as needed for the calendar year in which the appointment is made. A list of names for reappointment will be submitted to the Council by the Commissioner/Chief by the first Council meeting each year. No one shall be appointed a special policeman after he has reached the age of 55 years. [Added 4-1-1974 by Ord. No. 1072]

§ 41-8. Adoption of rules and regulations.

The Police Civil Service Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt, subject to the approval of the Borough Council, rules and regulations relating to the appointment, suspension, demotion and removal of members of the police force.
